8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Location:

ARIZONA HIDTA TRAINING CENTER

5350 North 48th Street, Suite 105, Chandler, AZ 85226

This course may qualify for training credit from your agency.

Prerequisite: Students must be full-time, intelligence and/or criminal analysts working for a law enforcement agency.

Course Description: This course leverages almost nine decades of experience between both the instructors in the federal, state, and local intelligence and law enforcement fields. This 3-day seminar will have a mix of discussions of leadership principles and the practical application of those principles in actual scenarios that the instructors and students have been involved with. All students will be strongly encouraged to participate in discussions of the various scenarios introduced throughout the course. This course is designed for intelligence and law enforcement professionals that have a desire to become in a leadership position or already are in an entry to mid-level leadership position.

Who Should Attend: Intelligence and Criminal Analysts and/or Supervisors.

Education Hours: This course may qualify for training credit from your agency.

Dress Code: Uniform or Business Casual - (No shorts; No flip flops)

Lodging: Students are responsible for their own hotel and per diem costs. Hotel information will be included with the confirmation email.

Registration Limitations: Each agency is limited to five approved attendees. Substitutions for confirmed attendees are not permitted.
